

FOOD AND DRINK POLICY

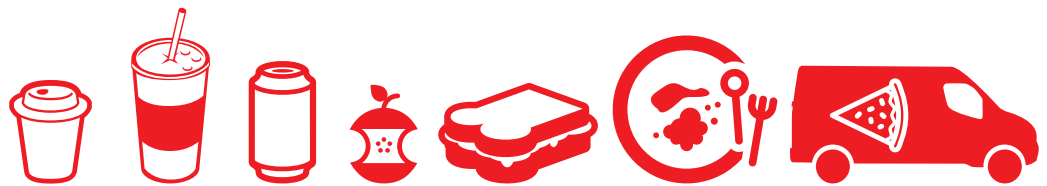

EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 1, 2014

ALLOWED IN STUDY AREAS

- dry, non-perishable snacks (crackers, chips, nuts, etc.)
- drinks in sealed bottles and spill-proof, sealed travel mugs

NOT ALLOWED

- takeout food, meals, and perishables (pizza, salad, sandwiches, fruit, etc.)
- drinks in open, disposable containers (paper coffee cups, fountain drinks, etc.)
- delivery of food to the library

NO FOOD OR DRINK PERMITTED

- near library equipment (computers, scanners, TVs, stereos, etc.)
- in the library book stacks
- Woodson Research Center
- Digital Media Commons

The Fondren Library food and drink policy is intended to maintain a pleasant environment conducive to study and research while preserving our collections, equipment, and furnishings.

Please be respectful of library spaces. Dispose of trash in appropriate receptacles. Report spills to library staff.

Users who do not comply with these policies will be asked to take food and drink outside the library.

Thank you for taking care of our library!